MANHOOD.
How Lost, How Restored.
Just Published, in a Sealed Envelope,
ON THE NATURE, TREATMENT, AND RADICAL CURE OF SPERMATORRHŒA or Seminal Weakness, Sexual Debility, Nervousness, and Involuntary Emissions, inducing Impotency and Mental and Physical Incapacity.
By ROB. J. CULVERWELL, M. D.,
Author of the "Green Book," &c.
The world-renowned author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of self-abuse may be effectually removed without medicine and without dangerous surgical operations, bougies, instruments, rings, or cordials, pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically. This Lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands.
Sent under seal to any address, post paid, on the receipt of two postage stamps, by addressing Dr. CH. J. C. KLINE, M. D., 127 Bowery, New York, Post Box 4,586.

Cincinnati Venereal Hospital,
Established in the year 1850,
FOR THE CURE OF PRIVATE DISEASES,
And under the control of two of the most eminent Physicians in the world.
DR. E. BONAPARTE, from London and Paris Hospitals, and for the past ten years of the Cincinnati Venereal Hospital, and Dr. E. B. Reynolds, late of New York. This is the only office in the city where a permanent cure of private diseases can be obtained without the use of mercury or change of diet. Gonorrhœa cured in 3 to 4 hours. Gleet cured in 3 to 10 days. Strictures cured in 1 to 5 weeks. Nocturnal emissions stopped in 1 to 2 weeks. Seminal weakness cured in 2 to 4 weeks. Syphilis in the primary stages cured in 3 days. Secondary symptoms cured in 1 to 3 weeks. Skin diseases cured in 1 to 3 weeks. Impotency—vigor restored in 1 to 4 weeks. All diseases of a private nature treated with unparalleled success, male or female.
Dr. Bonaparte's great work on private diseases, the private guide to health, is beneficial to all, male and female, the old and young should read this book. It will enlighten those who grope in darkness. Price 25 cents, sent by mail.
Dr. Bonaparte's Celebrated Preventive never has nor never will fail—married ladies too feeble to bear children, except at the hazard of life, should be in possession of this invention. Price reduced to $2.
Dr. Bonaparte's French Patent Male Safe. It is perfectly safe and never fails to give satisfaction. It is the only safe and sure preventive against pregnancy and disease. The price of the French Patent Male Safe is $1 the single one, $4 per half dozen, $7 per dozen. Sent by mail.
☞ Madame Lozier's Female Monthly Pills are a safe and reliable remedy for suppressions and all female diseases. Ladies should not use them during pregnancy, as they will produce miscarriage. Price $1 per box—sent free of postage to any address by mail.
Drs. B. & R. are the best, as they consult a lady unquestionably acknowledged to be the champion and king of venereal diseases, and the only Doctors who receive Monthly Reports from the old world. They have been accustomed from an early age of youth to alleviate the various diseases which afflict mankind, and to watch the progress, through a long career of professional study, to the ravages in store for poor humanity, from the humble abode of poverty to the mansions of the wealthy, and having experienced beyond a doubt the vast suffering of humanity, they determined to select the generative system as their particular study, and to devote their whole attention to the alleviation of the diseases of those important functions. No letters will be answered unless they contain a remittance or postage stamp.

AND

PROFESSOR WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR.

Is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, reinstates, and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted to as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet it is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerfully tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science, and also by all who have suffered from debility; for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease, and lays the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for example, as the following: Consumption, Bronchitis, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Irritability, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Melancholy, Hypochondria, Night Sweats, Languor, Giddiness, and all that class of cases so fearfully fatal, if unattended to in time, called Female Weakness and Irregularities. Also, Liver Derangements or Torpidity, and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidneys, Scalding or Incontinence of the Urine, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs. Pain in the Back, Side, and between the Shoulders, predisposition to Slight Colds, Hacking and continued Cough, Emaciation, Difficulty of Breathing, and indeed we might enumerate many more still, but we have space only to say it will not only cure the debility following Chills and Fever, but prevent all attacks arising from Miasmatic influences, and cure the diseases at once, if already attacked. And as it acts directly and persistently upon the biliary system, arousing the Liver to action, promoting, in fact, all the excretions and secretions of the system, it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon change of climate and water; hence all travelers should have a bottle with them, and all should take a tablespoonful at least before eating. As it prevents costiveness, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits, students, ministers, literary men. And all ladies not accustomed to much out-door exercise should always use it. If they will they will find an agreeable, pleasant, and efficient remedy against those ills which rob them of their beauty; for beauty cannot exist without health, and health cannot exist while the above irregularities continue. Then again the Cordial is a perfect Mother's Relief. Taken a month or two before the final trial she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety. There is no mistake about it, this Cordial is all we claim for it. Mothers try it! And to you we appeal to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters before it be too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business that if it were not for you they too would travel in the same downward path until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal; for we are sure your never-failing affection will unerringly point you to Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should be always on hand in time of need. O. J. WOOD, Proprietor, 444 Broadway, New York, and 114 Market street, St. Louis, Mo., and sold by all good Druggists. Price One Dollar per Bottle.
For sale by Wilson, Peter & Co., Sutcliffe & Preuss, J. S. Morris & Sons, Raymond & Co., Lindenberger & Co., Raymond & Tyler, Springer & Bro., Agents in Louisville, and all druggists.

The Early Physical Degeneracy of AMERICAN PEOPLE.
JUST PUBLISHED BY DR. STONE,
Physician to the Troy Lung and Hygienic Institute,
A Treatise on the Causes of Early Physical Decline of American People; the Cause of Nervous Debility, Consumption, and Marasmus.
☞ This work is of a high moral tone, written in chaste yet thrilling language, and appeals directly to the moral consciousness of ALL PARENTS AND GUARDIANS especially, detailing scientific and reliable aids and treatment for cure.
It will be sent by mail on receipt of two 3-cent stamps.
☞ PARENTS AND GUARDIANS! fail not to send and obtain this book.
☞ YOUNG MEN! fail not to send and get this book.
☞ LADIES! you, too, should at once secure a copy of this book.

A Word of Solemn Conscientious Advice to those who will Reflect.
A class of maladies prevail to a fearful extent in community dooming at least 100,000 youth of both sexes annually to an early grave. Those diseases are very imperfectly understood. Their external manifestations or symptoms are Nervous Debility, Relaxation, and Exhaustion; Marasmus or wasting and consumption of the tissues of the whole body; shortness of breathing or hurried breathing on ascending a hill or a flight of stairs, great palpitation of the Heart; Asthma, Bronchitis, and sore Throat; shaking of the Hands and Limbs, aversion to society and to business or study; dimness of Eyesight; loss of Memory; dizziness of the Head, Neuralgic Pains in various parts of the body; Pains in the Back or Limbs; Lumbago, Dyspepsia, or Indigestion; irregularities of the Bowels; deranged sections of the Kidneys and other glands of the body, as Leucorrhœa or Fluor Albus, &c. Likewise Epilepsy, Hysteria, and Nervous Spasms.
Now, in ninety-nine cases out of every one hundred all the above-named disorders, and a host of others not named, as Consumption of the Lungs, and the most insidious and wily form of Consumption of the Spinal Nerves, known as Tabes Dorsales, and Tabes mesenterica, have their seat and origin in diseases of Pelvic Viscera. Hence the want of success on the part of old school practice in treating symptoms only.
Dr. Andrew Stone, Physician to the Troy Lung and Hygienic Institution, is now engaged in treating this class of modern maladies with the most astonishing success. The treatment adopted by the Institution is new; it is based upon scientific principles, with new discovered remedies, without minerals or poisons. The facilities of cure are such that patients can be cured at their homes, in any part of the country, from accurate descriptions of their cases, by letter, and have the medicines sent them by mail or express. Printed interrogatories will be forwarded on application.
☞ Consumption, Catarrh, and diseases of the Throat cured as well at the homes of patients as at the Institution, by sending the Cold Medicated Inhaling Balsamic Vapors, with inhaler, and ample directions for their use, and direct correspondence.
☞ Patients applying for interrogatories or advice must enclose return stamps to meet attention.
☞ The attending physician will be found at the Institution for consultation, from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. of each day. Sundays in the forenoon.

Louisville
MEDICAL INFIRMARY,
CONDUCTED ON THE PLAN OF THE HOSPITAL DES VENERIENS, PARIS.

WHERE those afflicted with any form of Private Disease can receive prompt treatment without risk or exposure, viz: Syphilis, Gonorrhea, Gleet, Strictures, Ulcers, Tumors, Cancers, Secondary and Constitutional Syphilis. Diseases of the Kidneys [illegible] ... them at once from their own [illegible] and permanently cured at this Infirmary.
YOUNG MEN, TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.—Dr. H. devotes much of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret habit which ruins both body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for either business or society. The sad effects of these early habits or of the excess of riper years are to weaken and debilitate the constitution, destroy both physical and mental powers, diminish and enfeeble the natural feelings, and exhaust the vital energies of manhood; the victims thereof are impaired and wasted and become a prey to [illegible] ... contemplating marriage, should be aware of it and in the immediate examination, as Dr. H., by his new treatment, is enabled to ensure a speedy and permanent cure.
DR. HALL'S AMERICAN PERIODICAL PILLS.
No article of medicine intended for the use of females has ever yet been introduced that has given such universal satisfaction as the American Periodical Pills. They can be relied on in all cases of Menstrual Obstructions, Irregularities, &c., and as a safe and sure remedy. Price, per box $1 and postage stamp.
Patients living at a distance can be cured at home by sending a description of their disease and inclosing a stamp.

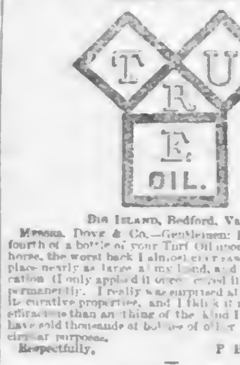
This is really a Good Medicine, warranted to Cure.



BIG ISLAND, Bedford, Va., Nov. 1, 1854.
Messrs. DOVE & Co.—Gentlemen: I used about one fourth of a bottle of your Turf Oil upon the back of my horse, the worst back I almost ever saw, entirely raw, a place nearly as large as my hand, and the single application of it only applied it once, cured it up entirely and permanently. I really was surprised at the quickness of its curative properties, and I think it is one of the best and efficacious things than any thing of the kind I ever saw, and I have sold thousands at bottles of other preparations for similar purposes.
Respectfully, P. BONDURANT.

SURRY COUNTY, Va., January, 1858.
GENTLEMEN: My old negro Ben, about [illegible] years of age, while hewing rails with a broad-axe, split the calf of the leg open down to the bone, about four inches long, cutting an artery. It bled profusely for two days, and continued to bleed until cold and stiff. I had to give him [illegible]. I could not stop it, but not until I had applied a piece of linen with your Turf Oil and laid it on the cut, I did not expect him, on account of his age, ever to be able to work again. I continued to dress the wound two or three weeks with the Turf Oil. In six weeks the cut was entirely well, and he was at work again.
Very respectfully, W. CLAIBORNE JONES.

We have for the greater part of the past year devoted our time in VISITING THE EUROPEAN HOSPITALS, availing ourselves of the knowledge and researches of the most skilled Physicians and Surgeons in Europe and on the Continent. Those of RICORD, VALLEAU, LENOIRE, RICORD, BRECHETEAU, ACTON, and CURLING, [illegible]. Our tour extended through France, Prussia, Holland, England, Ireland, Scotland, and Wales, visiting in our route the hospitals in Paris, London, Rome, Venice, Vienna, Dresden, Berlin, &c. We have been amply repaid by the additional knowledge we have acquired in the treatment of various diseases to which we have devoted our attention. Those who place themselves under our care will now have the full benefit of the many NEW AND EFFICIENT REMEDIES which we are enabled to introduce into our practice, and the public may rest assured of the same zeal, assiduity, SECRECY, and attention being paid to their cases, which has so successfully distinguished us heretofore as a Physician in our PECULIAR department of professional practice.
Medicine with full directions sent to any part of the United States or Canadas by patients communicating their symptoms by letter. Business correspondence strictly confidential.

CELEBRATED
STIMULATING ONGUENT
For the Whiskers and Hair.
The subscribers take pleasure in announcing to the citizens of the United States that they have obtained the Agency for, and are now enabled to offer to the American public the above justly celebrated and world-renowned article.
THE STIMULATING ONGUENT
is prepared by Dr. C. P. Bellingham, an eminent physician of London, and is warranted to bring out a thick set of
WHISKERS OR A MUSTACHE
In from three to six weeks. This article is the only one of the kind used by the French, and in London and Paris it is in universal use.
It is a beautiful, economical, soothing, yet stimulating compound, acting as if by magic upon the roots, causing a beautiful growth of luxuriant hair. If applied to the scalp it will cure baldness, and cause to spring up in place of the bald spots a fine growth of new hair. Applied according to directions, it will turn red or towy hair dark, and restore gray hair to its original color, leaving it soft, smooth, and flexible. The "Onguent" is an indispensable article in every gentleman's toilet, and after one week's use they would not for any consideration be without it.
The subscribers are the only Agents for the article in the United States, to whom all orders must be addressed.
Price One Dollar a box. For sale by all Druggists and Dealers; or a box of the "Onguent" (warranted to have the desired effect) will be sent to any who desire it, by mail direct, securely packed, on receipt of price and postage, $1 18. Apply to or address

LOUISVILLE JOURNAL

ACTS PASSED BY CONGRESS.—Of the acts passed during the session which has just expired, the National Intelligencer believes the following to be a correct list. Of course, as is usual, many bills have been left on the tables of both Houses, but as yet we have heard of none of primary importance. The tariff act was passed, and we expect to have it in our power to publish a correct copy of it in a day or two:

PUBLIC ACTS.

For the admission of Kansas into the Union.

To provide for a Superintendent of Indian Affairs for Washington Territory and additional Indian agents.

To provide for the payment of outstanding treasury notes, to authorize a loan, to regulate and fix the duties of imports, and for other purposes.

☞ Apropos of defective proof reading, we clip the following from "Ways and Words of Men of Letters," an entertaining compilation, by the Rev. James Pycroft. The gentleman, it seems, had complained to his printer of an amusing mistake which some of his hands had made:

"Really," said the printer, "gentlemen should not place such unlimited confidence in the eyesight of our hard worked and half blinded reader of proofs; for I am ashamed to say that we utterly ruined one poet through a ludicrous misprint." "Indeed! and what was the unhappy line?" "Why, sir, the poet intended to say:

See the pale martyr in a sheet of fire;

instead of which we made him say:

See the pale martyr with his shirt on fire.

Of course the reviewers made the most of a blunder so excruciating to their readers, and the poor gentleman was never heard of more in the field of literature."

Suicide of a Convicted Murderer.—John Cathcart, the wife murderer, who was confined in the jail of Clearfield county, Penn., under sentence of death, and whose sentence of death was ordered to take place on the 12th of April next, committed suicide on Sunday night by hanging himself with a handkerchief to the cell door.

OBSTINATE MULES.—An inch rope for a halter and a wire for a nose-piece will make a mule as docile as a lamb.

FUTURE PROSPERITY OF THE SOUTH.—Whatever may be the result of the present distracted state of the country, the South must rely in all time to come for her material wealth, upon the great business of Agriculture. She will, we hope and trust, manufacture whatever her necessities may require, that can be manufactured by her people, for the great principle in political economy that the immediate proximity of producer and consumer is alike advantageous to both, holds good the world over. It is not our purpose, however, in this article to discuss the necessity of manufactures at the South, our object being to offer a few thoughts upon the prosperity of the South in its agricultural aspect.

The resources of the Southern States are and will be the products of the soil. Of the cereals it is in her power to grow not only sufficient for home consumption, but a large surplus for export. It is a well established fact (as has been heretofore stated in these columns) that Southern grown wheat makes flour which may be taken into any latitude without being injured by climate, while Northern flour when carried into low latitudes, invariably sours. This explains the difference in price which prevails in favor of Southern wheat, when the two are in the market. The natural fertility of the soil, throughout the grain growing regions of the South, is unsurpassed taken as a whole, and may with judicious cultivation be kept so till the end of time. In many places, however, this richness has been partially destroyed by excessive and injudicious methods of farming. This must be remedied by adopting the experience and improved modes of culture which mark the progress of the times. No man can expect that an exhausted soil will produce prolific crops without supplying in some form its extracted constituents, any more than an empty pocket can pay importunate creditors.

Nor is this less true in regard to other crops. Particularly does it apply to the cotton region. It is a trite remark if not true, that "cotton has destroyed more than earthquakes and volcanoes." Certain it is that if the system as pursued by many planters, had been persistently followed by the Southern people, the next generation would have beheld an arid waste where once was the cotton region of the Gulf States. There is satisfaction in the reflection, that an improved system is being adopted by the majority of planters, and that the dissemination of better modes of culture—judicious rotations, as well as other means of enriching the soil, the mitigation of depredations by tribes of insects, the partial prevention of rot—all these things are working a great and favorable change—in short there is a disposition to embrace the practice and cultivation of the best informed and practical planters of the South—for these are by far the most successful in the culture of the great staple, which it has now been demonstrated, cannot be grown to advantage anywhere else on the face of the earth.

Much has been done in the right direction in this regard, but the work may be said to have just fairly begun. This great interest must be fostered and pushed forward. There is great need of education in this behalf to eradicate error and replace it with correct ideas. It will come in time, but it may come speedily. When it does arrive the South, with all of her great staples of export, will present a picture of prosperity such as has never been equalled in the history of any people.

So. Homestead.

PREPARATION OF BONES FOR MANURE.—The best and cheapest method of preparing bones for manure, says the Country Gentleman, is, first, to boil them in strong lye a few hours, to extract from them the animal matter, or, what would be more convenient, perhaps, break them as fine as convenient, and put them into a tub of lye, to remain there during pleasure, until the animal matter is all extracted and incorporated with the lye. The mineral part of the bones will now be found very friable and easily pulverized. They should be rinsed clean, pulverized, and put into another tub or trough.

Apply to them some diluted sulphuric acid, in the proportion of one of acid to five of water. Stir them frequently, and in a short time they will be entirely decomposed and fit for use. These two masses, being equally rich in the elements of fertility, the one of ammonia and the other of phosphorus, are equally valuable as fertilizers, and adapted to any and every variety of soil that may be deficient in these elements, are equally necessary for the healthful maturity of every growing plant, whether of grain, grasses, fruits, or roots. I now advise a mixture of these two masses with the general compost, to secure a general diffusion of them upon the different fields to be manured.

My reason for the general diffusion of these masses upon the different fields is, first, every plant needs them. Secondly, the farmer's resources in this line will be mainly within himself. This will be true of those that live at a distance from villages and cities. Their resources must be small. Thirdly, the elements of the bone, both animal and mineral, were taken from the different fields, and should be returned to the same fields. To keep up the fertility of each field, it is necessary to return to it annually the same elements that are taken away. The farmer may secure a large crop of any kind on any field, by robbing other fields of the same elements of fertility to enrich that one. But such a policy would not only be bad but ruinous if pursued.

INTERESTING TO FARMERS' WIVES.—Economic Soups.—Get two pounds of leg or shin of beef, cut it into pieces, and boil gently in six quarts of water for about an hour and a half. Then add a pint of split peas, a pound of mealy potatoes, and a head of celery cut small. Slice a few onions and fry them in a little fat, dredging them slightly with flour till they are nicely brown; then stir them into your soup, and add salt and pepper to your taste. Let the whole boil until the celery, &c., is thoroughly tender and the peas well broken in; then serve up, either with or without toasted bread.

Old English Christmas Plum Pudding.—To make what is termed a pound pudding, take of raisins well stoned, currants thoroughly washed one pound each; chop a pound of suet very finely, and mix with them; add a pound of bread finely crumbled and just flour enough to chop your suet, three ounces of sugar, one ounce and a half of grated lemon peel, a blade of mace, half a small nutmeg, one teaspoonful of ginger, half a dozen eggs well beaten; work it well together, put it into a cloth, tie it firmly, allowing room to swell and boil not less than five hours. It should not be suffered to stop boiling.

Molasses Pound Cake.—One pound flour, one pint of molasses, quarter pound of sugar, six ounces butter, six eggs, a small quantity of pearl ash, five drops essence of lemon.

Lime for Preserving Shingles.—Hon. R. Hunter, in a letter published in the Rural Intelligencer, says that slaked lime sprinkled on the roofs of buildings on rainy days, will remove moss and preserve the shingles for nearly double the time they would last if not thus treated. Put it on thick enough to make the roof look white, and two applications will clean off the moss and leave the roof white and clean. It should be applied annually; but if the lime is not to be had very conveniently, wood ashes will answer the same purpose.

AN ORDINANCE

To prevent the obstruction of Main street, between Brook and Tenth streets and Third street, between Main and Jefferson streets, in the city of Louisville.

Be it ordained by the General Council of the City of Louisville, That it shall be unlawful for wagons, carts, or other vehicles loaded with coal, or being loaded with coal, to stand on Main street, between Brook and Tenth streets, or Third street, between Main and Jefferson streets in the city of Louisville, or in any manner to obstruct said streets.

And further, It shall be unlawful for carts, wagons, or other vehicles loaded with coal to be stopped on the above mentioned portion of Main or Third street for the purpose of receiving tickets or certificates of the size, quantity, or quality of the load.

For a violation of any of the provisions hereof, the owner or driver of such cart, wagon, or other vehicle shall be fined not less than $5, nor more than $10 for each offence; but if the driver be a slave, and, in disobedience of the instructions of his owner or employer, violate the provisions of this ordinance, the owner or person having authority over such slave shall be fined $5.

There is scarcely a disease, ailment, or malady that ranges over the human system but that one of its chief and primary symptoms is HEADACHE. The slightest derangement of the stomach, Liver, Heart, Skin, Bowels, Kidneys, or Bladder, or a disturbance of the circulation of the blood, or irritation of the perspiration—results in pain, to a greater or less degree of severity, in the HEAD.

HEADACHE

Is not of itself a disease, but it is a certain sign that some undesirable fluid is generated within the system, and the disease within the body, and Headache, therefore, should never be neglected; it is a warning of approaching danger, and it is the sufferer to fortify his system against the threatened disease. OLIVER LUCAS, Local Editor and Reporter.

SATURDAY, MARCH 9 8 A. M.

☞ We this morning lay before the readers of the Journal a correct copy of the inaugural address. The perusal of it has but deepened the impression the telegraphic report produced in our minds. Viewing it in connection with current developments, we cannot honestly doubt the pacific character of the address. We are persuaded that they who look upon it as a declaration of war see not what is really to be seen but what they wish to see.

☞ The aspect of certain passages in the Washington despatches of the [illegible] inst. seem favorable. It appears that Mr. Lincoln, in reply to Southern gentlemen, who called upon him to know how his inaugural was to be understood, said that it meant peace. Of course the remark that his inaugural meant peace would not, under ordinary circumstances, have seemed to possess any especial significance, but the generation of the South unquestionably understood, and made him understand, the full purport of the inquiry which they had called to make, and no doubt the answer presumed is to be regarded by themselves, was not regarded by them as vague and unmeaning. Moreover, the conclusion of the Commissioners from the Southern Confederacy to postpone their communication to Mr. Lincoln for a few days and that Mr. Seward should have an opportunity to develop his policy toward the seceding States is certainly a good sign.

[illegible] in the Senate of the United States, Mr. Sumner presented a petition [illegible] of Massachusetts, asking Congress to [illegible] that NO PERSON SHALL BE HELD IN SLAVERY BY THE LAWS OF ANY STATE AND THAT SUCH PERSONS NOW HELD SHALL BE FREE. There is Kentucky who [illegible] secular pleasure in sending [illegible] States can now see [illegible] the object of the Northern people [illegible] with the unqualified [illegible] of a majority of the Republican party [illegible] that a petition so monstrously infamous [illegible] should find even five hundred signers is well calculated to alarm the Southern people. That they would [illegible] property [illegible] servile rebellion, and plunge the whole country into civil war, to accomplish their avowed design, is too palpable to be doubted.—Exchange.

We find this in one of the secession papers of Kentucky. We give it as a specimen of the unscrupulous and dishonest means adopted by the organs of secession to exasperate sectional animosities and break up the Union.

It is a matter of no earthly consequence that a few persons get up such a petition in a Northern community. We have no doubt there are in nearly or quite every State of the Union a number of burglars, horse-thieves, and counterfeiters equal to the number of the signers to that Massachusetts petition. Even Mr. Sumner, loathsome as we all know him to be in his abolitionism, declared, while presenting the petition, that he utterly disapproved and condemned the prayer of the petitioners.

The paper, from which we quote, thinks that the people of Kentucky can "see clearly from the petition in question the object of the Northern people." The editor's purpose is to make the impression that the men of Kentucky can now see clearly that the object of the Northern people is to press at once through Congress a law abolishing slavery everywhere and instantly. He says the fact that a proposition so monstrously infamous in its character should find even five hundred signers "is well calculated to alarm the Southern people." Then the Southern people are infinitely better calculated to be "alarmed" than any mortal man that knows them ever took them to be. If the signing of an abolition petition by five hundred Massachusetts abolitionists from among a population of nearly two millions is well calculated to alarm the Southern people, certainly courage has fled from its chosen abode. But the editor has no evidence whatever that the petition was signed by five hundred men or one hundred or fifty or ten or even five. We presume, however, that the number would make no matter of difference with him. The brave fellow would unquestionably have the South go into a panic at the movements of five abolitionists as readily as of five hundred.

But for the wretched delusions created by pestilent editors, big and little, North and South, the present miserable troubles would never have existed.

☞ The secessionists and nullifiers, after laboring violently for years to relieve themselves from what they called the oppressive and outrageous system of import duties, now concur in the policy of imposing upon the people both import and export duties "in addition," as the Memphis Bulletin says, "to a pretty onerous tariff of direct taxes." We suppose this double set of duties must be excused, as they are probably about the only kinds of duties that the secession leaders will ever manifest the slightest partiality for.

Let us, if we have nothing better to do, look calmly on and see how these doubled and twisted tariffs work where they are in operation. Of course however there is no telling or even guessing how long they will be kept in operation. Our friends in the seceding States, who have at present all the machinery of a new government to put in motion at an immense expense over and above the tremendous expenses of their preparations for war, must, for years at least, resort to every possible expedient for the raising of funds, but this is no indication that they will not at their old principle of free trade if ever they shall find the crushing burdens so far removed from their shoulders that they can afford to do so.

The Southern Congress is said to have passed an act authorizing the raising of a loan of fifteen millions payable in ten years, at eight per cent interest, guaranteed by an export duty on cotton of sixty cents a bale. Of course this export duty must remain for ten years at least, whatever may be substituted afterwards. But let us consider how long the loan of fifteen millions, even if it be raised, is likely to last. Certainly not for the tenth part of ten years. And what can be done then? Must not fifteen millions more be borrowed, and must not the borrowing be repeated every year? Must not the export duties, in the absence of direct taxes, be doubled, trebled, quadrupled, and quintupled? And if the necessary taxes for the support of government shall be levied chiefly or in a large degree upon slaves, is it not likely that the seceding States will very soon be taxed into a free-soil confederacy?

We had better, before taking any leap into the Jeff Davis confederacy, look several times so as to see whether we shouldn't be reasonably certain to alight upon a quagmire that would bury us out of sight. Do the very best you can, neighbors of the cotton States, and you may be sure of our watching you with exceeding interest and being ready to read candidly the lessons taught by your extraordinary example.

☞ We have been under the impression that the palmetto was of no use under heaven, but we are told that a considerable portion of the heart of it may be cooked and eaten as a sort of coarse and very unpalatable cabbage. We are glad to learn this, for it diminishes the chances of famine in that State. The South Carolinians, if they behave themselves, can get as much pork from Kentucky as they are able to pay for, and then the difference between the Yankees and the South Carolinians will be, that, while the former live upon pork and cabbage, the latter will subsist upon pork and palmetto. And perhaps we shall see which makes the best fighting-diet.

☞ There is much inquiry in Memphis as to alleged vexations practiced on the Mobile and Ohio Railroad. The Memphis Bulletin says there is reason to believe that orders have been given in some instances to the station agents not to receive and forward any cotton for Corinth and Memphis, the design being supposed to be the forcing of the cotton to Mobile. We trust there is some mistake about this. If the [illegible] in the seceding States are really [illegible] enough, as we must think they are not, to interfere with the sending of Western products to Tennessee and Kentucky, we should certainly begin to think about ceasing to send our productions to them. We like you exceedingly, gentlemen of the South, but we guess, that, the fewer you get of our hogs, the more grunting you'll do yourselves.

☞ It is very easy to pronounce a correct judgment upon those men, who, holding office under the Federal Government at Washington, violated their trust and their oaths and are now holding office under the Cotton Government. Men, who will break their oaths of allegiance to one Government, will, if tempted, break a similar oath to any other Government.

A Kentucky gentleman, just from Georgia, where he has traveled extensively to sixty days, informs us that he met but one man who was willing to come back into the old Union, UPON ANY TERMS.—Courier.

We give the above, italics, small caps, and misinformation, just as we find it. South Carolina is grumbling; Louisiana says that the Secession Convention was an irresponsible body that did not represent the popular will; the Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle says, "the government organized will not be binding on the people of any State, until it receives their sanction," and adds that "the delegates at Montgomery were appointed irregularly, that is to say, not by the people, but by State Conventions, and their appointment, as was understood, was for consultation, and not for permanent action," and states also that "the people will meet the action with indignant rejection." The Corinth Mississippi advertiser start the question of a return to the Union, declares that it will be the great question at the next State election, states that "the first levy for the new government has so exasperated the already burdened tax-payers, as to only require a leader to induce them to resist the collection of the tax," and adds that "many now quiet under the belief that the burdens of an independent government will be obviated by reconstruction, will become insubordinate when hope is lost for reconstruction and the Border Slave States refuse to enter the Southern Alliance." But the most significant passage is that where the editor says: "By our precipitate action, we have lost the confidence of the other States, as well as of our own citizens, many of whom consider the whole proceeding as illegal and revolutionary, and look with pleasure at the probable enforcement of the laws of that government to whom they claim to owe supreme allegiance."

From every portion of the Southern Confederacy we hear mutterings of discontent. The Athens (Ala.) Banner says "the business of the 'Southern Congress' is conducted in secret; its acts are kept from the people, yes from the very people it professes to represent and protect. Why is this? Why are we to have no showing at all? Are these self-constituted Congressmen afraid of the sovereigns? Their convention-making, constitution-making, and tax-levying don't afford the evidence against such fear. And this is a specimen of the liberty and independence promised by the breeding patriots of South Carolina and Alabama, is it? They were to deliver the South from Black Republican aggressions, were they not? and haven't they played the 'very devil' by precipitating it into revolution and a Southern tyranny!" We might multiply similar extracts to any extent to show that there are plenty of men in the Cotton States who look upon Secession as a curse, and are anxiously awaiting "the hour and the man" to bring them back into the Union. The fact is that the United States can't be destroyed, despite all the efforts of fanatics. Do what they will, the Union must survive; neither plots nor usurpations can convert the loyal masses into traitors, and it will escape all harm. It reminds us of the fate of a Frenchman, who, having resolved to be rid of life, went, a little before high tide, to a post set up by the sea-side. He had provided himself with a ladder, a rope, a pistol, a bundle of matches, and a vial of poison. Ascending the ladder, he tied one end of the rope to the post, and the other end round his neck; then he took the poison, set his clothes on fire, put the muzzle of the pistol to his head, and kicked away the ladder. In kicking down the ladder he sloped the pistol so that the ball missed his head and cut through the rope by which he was suspended; he fell into the sea, thus extinguishing the flames of his clothes, and the sea water, which he involuntarily swallowed, counteracted the poison, and thus, in spite of his precautions, he remained unhanged, unshot, unpoisoned, unburned, and undrowned.

☞ A stay law has been passed by the Mississippi Legislature. The act makes all executions issued, and all judgments rendered by justices, returnable twelve months from date; all executions from courts of record are returnable to the second term after date of writ; and all executions upon judgments rendered by courts of record are returnable to the second term after the date of said execution. No property is to be sold by virtue of any execution until the return day thereof.

The secession organs of Mississippi make loud and very violent complaints and indulge in fierce denunciations and even in charges of slander and falsehood when we or any other editors speak of pecuniary distress in their State. They tell us that there is no distress at all in Mississippi, that on the contrary prosperity reigns there, but the country will think that the enactment of this stay-law speaks a good deal louder than a few reckless party editors can do. We don't know how much distress there may be among the Mississippi debtors; we fear there is likely to be a good deal more among the creditors.

With all our regard for Mississippi, and we have much, we think that it would have been wise on her part, rather than persecute the credit class for the benefit of the debtor class, to lay a tax of twelve dollars on negroes.

☞ At the recent mob in Richmond, Virginia, gathered to express disapprobation of the speech of one of the Union members of the Convention, O. Jennings Wise, who harangued the multitude, warned the Convention that it might yet become necessary for the people to arise in their might and clear the chambers at the point of the bayonet. Goode, a member of the Convention, boasted, in his remarks to the same crowd, that the people were "on the war path now—not to be governed by the fiats of namby-pamby Conventions or sleeping Legislatures—but to sweep them and the bonds of Yankee taskmasters into oblivion, and disenthrall the State in spite of them." Such are the insolent menaces under which the Virginia Convention sits and deliberates. We shall see whether or not these menaces can work their purpose with the free and loyal men of Virginia in the Convention or out of it. We shall see what Virginia chivalry is made of.

☞ Let our citizens be patient. We have for the moment, it is true, some hardships to bear here on the high and fair plain of the Union, but nothing compared to what our seceding brethren are suffering down in the fiery pit of Disunion. If we stand firm, we shall be able not only to relieve ourselves but to restore them; if we falter, flinch, reel, and sink into the common pit, we shall all suffer irretrievable ruin together.

No citizen amongst us governed by an enlightened self-interest alone can hesitate for an instant in his loyalty to the Union.

☞ A few weeks ago, the Hon. Albert Pike, of Arkansas, wrote a very able letter against secession. Albert has now written a very able one for secession. He is a man of eminent ability, who never, since we knew him, wrote upon one side of a question without very soon writing upon the other. He evidently has a full appreciation of his great power, and thinks, that, if he were to devote himself for any considerable length of time to one side, he would be granting to the advocates of that side a sort of tremendous monopoly. He is a just and considerate man, and so he divides and distributes himself, always taking good care, we believe, that neither side shall get "the larger half."

☞ The secession organs contend very exultingly that the vote of the people of Texas upon secession shows how the people of all the secession States would vote, if the opportunity of voting were given them. Now if the people of all those States think that Texas is, as a matter of course, a correct exponent of their views, they had better hire her to do their entire voting for them through all the lifetime of their Confederacy. We do not suppose that she would charge them very enormously for the service, and then it would save them so much trouble.

☞ Gen. Joe Lane, when he found his secessionism repudiated by Oregon, made his arrangements immediately to emigrate to North Carolina. It seems however that North Carolina has repudiated secession, and we guess the General will conclude at once to go still further South. We presume he will not be able to find, this side of South Carolina, rest either for the sole of his foot or for any soul he has about him.

☞ The members of the Cotton States Congress utterly refuse to submit their constitution to the people of the States represented. They have either fear or scorn for the people. Which of those two feelings should the people have for them?

☞ Washington correspondents say that the Hon. John Bell is greatly depressed by the inaugural. We put no faith in this report, for the Hon. Robert Mallory, who left Washington City the day after the inauguration, says the venerable Tennesseean had indicated no feeling of despondency at that time, but was hopeful for pacification.

☞ The Charleston Mercury says that Maj. Anderson's retention of Fort Sumter is nothing but obstinacy. No doubt the South Carolinians think Anderson a Sumter-mule.

We learn that Gen. Wm. O. Butler, one of the Kentucky Commissioners to the Peace Conference, reached his home in Carrollton yesterday. We are informed that he thinks with the venerable John Tyler, of Virginia, that the action of the Conference amounts to just nothing at all—that the proposition agreed upon by that body should not be accepted by the people of the Slave States. Mr. Clay and Gen. Butler voted against and opposed the proposition in the Conference.

The majority of the Kentucky delegation in the Conference acted differently and think differently. And the subjoined passage from the proceedings of the Senate on the 2d inst. shows that Mr. Crittenden at least thinks with the majority of the delegation. We quote from the abridged report of the National Intelligencer:

Mr. Mason moved to take up the Crittenden propositions, the pending question being on Mr. Clark's amendment, which had been reconsidered. The amendment was rejected without a division.

The question recurring on the motion of Mr. Mason—

Mr. Crittenden said he greatly preferred the propositions of the Peace Conference to his own, for they more nearly expressed his original opinions. The exclusion of the provision for territory "to be hereafter acquired" especially met his approbation, and, if allowed, he would withdraw that provision from his own amendment.

On the question the yeas were 7 and the nays 28.

Mr. Crittenden was convinced his propositions required amendment, and he had draughted new propositions in such a form as met his present judgment, but had unfortunately left them at his lodgings. He particularly wished to abandon the provision respecting territory "hereafter to be acquired," and also wished to strike out the provision for Congressional legislation to protect slavery south of 36 deg. 30 min., and so to make it as to be protected by the laws and usages of the States from which slaveholders emigrate.

It is demeanor such as this that distinguishes conspicuously the patriot from the mischief-maker and politicians.

☞ Florida has set an example of honesty to the other seceding States. Treasurer Cisco of New York has received the balance remaining in the hands of John P. Baldwin, the Collector of Key West. And yet the Pensacola Tribune wants to get out of the State and annex West Florida to Alabama. It says:

Alabama is now furnishing the regulars for the Southern army, and has stood the expenses heretofore, and we hope she will require West Florida, from the Chattahoochee river, to balance accounts of indebtedness. We learn that our State treasury is bankrupt, and the future must be gloomy.

The Pensacola paper likewise charges that the Florida volunteers have been disarmed, virtually, by the partial policy of the State Executive, though the fact that Alabama is furnishing the regular army in Florida looks like a lack of confidence in the native population. And the New York World says the expressed hope that Alabama "will require West Florida from the Chattahoochee" to the Alabama line, "to balance accounts," is only another manner of advocating annexation—a measure which has hosts of advocates in West Florida, much to the disgust of East Florida. A divided house and an empty treasury! Indeed, "the future must be gloomy."

An Anecdote for the New President. The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial, describing the inauguration of the Vice-President, says:

Meanwhile the multitude without was entertained by the martial music, and by the antics of a lunatic who mounted a tall tree in front of the capitol, and made a long political speech, claiming to be the rightful President of the United States. Policemen were detached to bring him down, but he climbed with the agility of a monkey to the topmost boughs, where he stood rocking in the wind, and made another speech. He finally came down of his own accord.

We trust to the President's eye for an anecdote to discover the lesson of this suggestive incident.

☞ There is some controversy at present as regards the constitutional effects of blue eyes. We have never looked into this question in a scientific light, but as Capt. Rynders has been Marshal of New York and Tom Hyer has been named as his successor, we think black eyes, bloody noses, and swelled cheeks have usurped the old Jeffersonian code of honesty, capacity, and fidelity as the requirements for office-holders.

☞ The name of Major Anderson is strongly pressed upon the President as the successor to General Twiggs, who has been dismissed from the army. This would be a popular and good appointment, but promotions in our army go in regular routine of rank, and not by merit of peculiar service.

☞ The bill which passed Congress amending the patent laws, providing that all patents hereafter issued shall be for seventeen years and prohibitory, is a wise one, as it will prevent the recurrence of disgraceful legislative log-rolling and lobbying to have patents extended.

☞ The New York News, the Democratic organ, says of the Inaugural that it is "an able and statesmanlike document," and in its tone "courteous, considerate, and even conciliatory."

INAUGURAL ADDRESS OF THE HON. ABRAHAM LINCOLN, PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

Fellow-citizens of the United States: In compliance with a custom as old as the Government itself, I appear before you to address you briefly, and to take in your presence the oath prescribed by the Constitution of the United States to be taken by the President "before he enters on the execution of his office."

I do not consider it necessary at present for me to discuss those matters of administration about which there is no special anxiety or excitement.

Apprehension seems to exist among the people of the Southern States, that, by the accession of a Republican Administration, their property and their peace and personal security are to be endangered. There has never been any reasonable cause for such apprehension. Indeed, the most ample evidence to the contrary has all the while existed and been open to their inspection. It is found in nearly all the published speeches of him who now addresses you. I do but quote from one of those speeches when I declare that "I have no purpose, directly or indirectly, to interfere with the institution of slavery in the States where it exists. I believe I have no lawful right to do so, and I have no inclination to do so." Those who nominated and elected me did so with the full knowledge that I had made this and many similar declarations and had never recanted them. And more than this, they placed in the platform for my acceptance, and as a law to themselves and to me, the clear and emphatic resolution which I now read:

Resolved, That the maintenance inviolate of the rights of the States, and especially the right of each State to order and control its own domestic institutions according to its own judgment exclusively, is essential to the balance of power on which the perfection and endurance of our political fabric depend, and we denounce the lawless invasion by armed force of the soil of any State or Territory, no matter under what pretext, as among the gravest of crimes.

I now reiterate these sentiments; and, in doing so, I only press upon the public attention the most conclusive evidence of which the case is susceptible, that the property, peace, and security of no section are to be in anywise endangered by the now incoming Administration. I add, too, that all the protection which, consistently with the Constitution and the laws, can be given, will be cheerfully given to all the States when lawfully demanded, for whatever cause—as cheerfully to one section as to another.

There is much controversy about the delivering up of fugitives from service or labor. The clause I now read is as plainly written in the Constitution as any other of its provisions:

No person held to service or labor in one State, under the laws thereof, escaping into another, shall, in consequence of any law or regulation therein, be discharged from such service or labor, but shall be delivered up on claim of the party to whom such service or labor may be due.

It is scarcely questioned that this provision was intended by those who made it for the reclaiming of what we call fugitive slaves; and the intention of the law-giver is the law. All members of Congress swear their support to the whole Constitution—to this provision as much as any other. To the proposition, then, that slaves, whose cases come within the terms of this clause, "shall be delivered up," their oaths are unanimous. Now, if they would make the effort in good temper, could they not, with nearly equal unanimity, frame and pass a law by means of which to keep good that unanimous oath?

There is some difference of opinion whether this clause should be enforced by national or by State authority; but surely that difference is not a very material one. If the slave is to be surrendered, it can be of but little consequence to him, or to others, by which authority it is done. And should any one, in any case, be content that his oath shall go unkept, on a merely unsubstantial controversy as to how it shall be kept?

Again, in any law upon this subject, ought not all the safeguards of liberty known in civilized and humane jurisprudence to be introduced, so that a free man be not, in any case, surrendered as a slave? And might it not be well at the same time to provide by law for the enforcement of that clause in the Constitution which guarantees that "the citizens of each State shall be entitled to all privileges and immunities of citizens in the several States?"

I take the official oath to-day with no mental reservations, and with no purpose to construe the Constitution or laws by any hypercritical rules. And while I do not choose now to specify particular acts of Congress as proper to be enforced, I do suggest that it will be much safer for all, both in official and private stations, to conform to and abide by all those acts which stand unrepealed, than to violate any of them, trusting to find impunity in having them held to be unconstitutional.

It is seventy-two years since the first inauguration of a President under our National Constitution. During that period fifteen different and greatly distinguished citizens have, in succession, administered the Executive branch of the Government. They have conducted it through many perils, and generally with great success. Yet, with all this scope for precedent, I now enter upon the same task for the brief constitutional term of four years under great and peculiar difficulty. A disruption of the Federal Union, heretofore only menaced, is now formidably attempted.

I hold that, in contemplation of universal law, and of the Constitution, the Union of these States is perpetual. Perpetuity is implied, if not expressed, in the fundamental law of all National Governments. It is safe to assert that no government proper ever had a provision in its organic law for its own termination. Continue to execute all the express provisions of our National Constitution, and the Union will endure forever—it being impossible to destroy it, except by some action not provided for in the instrument itself.

Again, if the United States be not a Government proper, but an association of States in the nature of a contract merely, can it, as a contract, be peaceably unmade by less than all the parties who made it? One party to a contract may violate it—break it, so to speak; but does it not require all to lawfully rescind it?

Descending from these general principles, we find the proposition that, in legal contemplation, the Union is perpetual, confirmed by the history of the Union itself. The Union is much older than the Constitution. It was formed in fact by the Articles of Association in 1774. It was matured and continued by the Declaration of Independence in 1776. It was further matured, and the faith of all the then thirteen States expressly plighted and engaged that it should be perpetual, by the Articles of Confederation in 1778. And, finally, in 1787, one of the declared objects for ordaining and establishing the Constitution was "to form a more perfect union."

But if destruction of the Union, by one or by a part only, of the States, be lawfully possible, the Union is less perfect than before, the Constitution having lost the vital element of perpetuity.

It follows from these views, that no State, upon its own mere motion, can lawfully get out of the Union; that resolves and ordinances to that effect are legally void; and that acts of violence, within any State or States, against the authority of the United States, are insurrectionary or revolutionary, according to circumstances.

I, therefore, consider that, in view of the Constitution and the laws, the Union is unbroken, and, to the extent of my ability, I shall take care, as the Constitution itself expressly enjoins upon me, that the laws of the Union be faithfully executed in all the States. Doing this I deem to be only a simple duty on my part; and I shall perform it, so far as practicable, unless my rightful masters, the American people, shall withhold the requisite means, or, in some authoritative manner, direct the contrary. I trust this will not be regarded as a menace, but only as the declared purpose of the Union that it will constitutionally defend and maintain itself.

In doing this there need be no bloodshed or violence; and there shall be none, unless it be forced upon the national authority. The power confided to me will be used to hold, occupy, and possess the property and places belonging to the Government, and to collect the duties and imposts; but, beyond what may be necessary for these objects, there will be no invasion, no using of force against or among the people anywhere. Where hostility to the United States, in any interior locality, shall be so great and universal as to prevent competent resident citizens from holding the Federal offices, there will be no attempt to force obnoxious strangers among the people for that object. While the strict legal right may exist in the Government to enforce the exercise of these offices, the attempt to do so would be so irritating, and so nearly impracticable withal, I deem it better to forego, for the time, the uses of such offices.

The mails, unless repelled, will continue to be furnished in all parts of the Union. So far as possible, the people everywhere shall have that sense of perfect security which is most favorable to calm thought and reflection. The course here indicated will be followed, unless current events and experience shall show a modification or change to be proper, and in every case and exigency my best discretion will be exercised, according to circumstances actually existing, and with a view and a hope of a peaceful solution of the national troubles, and the restoration of fraternal sympathies and affections.

That there are persons in one section or another who seek to destroy the Union at all events, and are glad of any pretext to do it, I will neither affirm nor deny; but if there be such I need address no word to them. To those, however, who really love the Union, may I not speak?

Before entering upon so grave a matter as the destruction of our national fabric, with all its benefits, its memories, and its hopes, would it not be wise to ascertain precisely why we do it? Will you hazard so desperate a step while there is any possibility that any portion of the ills you fly from have no real existence? Will you, while the certain ills you fly to are greater than all the real ones you fly from—will you risk the commission of so fearful a mistake?

All profess to be content in the Union, if all constitutional rights can be maintained. Is it true, then, that any right, plainly written in the Constitution, has been denied? I think not. Happily the human mind is so constituted that no party can reach to the audacity of doing this. Think, if you can, of a single instance in which a plainly written provision of the Constitution has ever been denied. If, by the mere force of numbers, a majority should deprive a minority of any clearly written constitutional right, it might, in a moral point of view, justify revolution—certainly would if such right were a vital one. But such is not our case. All the vital rights of minorities and of individuals are so plainly assured to them by affirmations and negations, guarantees and prohibitions in the Constitution, that controversies never arise concerning them. But no organic law can ever be framed with a provision specifically applicable to every question which may occur in practical administration. No foresight can anticipate, nor any document of reasonable length contain express provisions for all possible questions. Shall fugitives from labor be surrendered by National or by State authority? The Constitution does not expressly say. May Congress prohibit slavery in the Territories? The Constitution does not expressly say. Must Congress protect slavery in the Territories? The Constitution does not expressly say.

From questions of this class spring all our constitutional controversies, and we divide upon them into majorities and minorities. If the minority will not acquiesce the majority must, or the government must cease. There is no other alternative; for continuing the government is acquiescence on one side or the other. If a minority in such case will secede rather than acquiesce they make a precedent which, in turn, will divide and ruin them; for a minority of their own will secede from them whenever a majority refuses to be controlled by such minority. For instance, why may not any portion of a new confederacy, a year or two hence, arbitrarily secede again, precisely as portions of the present Union now claim to secede from it? All who cherish disunion sentiments are now being educated to the exact temper of doing this.

Is there such perfect identity of interests among the States to compose a new Union, as to produce harmony only, and prevent renewed secession?

Plainly, the central idea of secession is the essence of anarchy. A majority held in restraint by constitutional checks and limitations, and always changing easily with deliberate changes of popular opinions and sentiments, is the only true sovereign of a free people. Whoever rejects it, does, of necessity, fly to anarchy or to despotism. Unanimity is impossible; the rule of a minority, as a permanent arrangement, is wholly inadmissible; so that rejecting the majority principle, anarchy or despotism in some form is all that is left.

I do not forget the position assumed by some that constitutional questions are to be decided by the Supreme Court; nor do I deny that such decisions must be binding, in any case, upon the parties to a suit, as to the object of that suit, while they are also entitled to very high respect and consideration in all parallel cases by all other departments of the Government. And while it is obviously possible that such decision may be erroneous in any given case, still the evil effect following it, being limited to that particular case, with the chance that it may be overruled, and never become a precedent for other cases, can better be borne than could the evils of a different practice. At the same time the candid citizen must confess that if the policy of the Government upon vital questions, affecting the whole people, is to be irrevocably fixed by decisions of the Supreme Court, the instant they are made in ordinary litigation between parties in personal actions, the people will have ceased to be their own rulers, having to that extent practically resigned their government into the hands of that eminent tribunal.

Nor is there in this view any assault upon the Court or the Judges. It is a duty from which they may not shrink to decide cases properly brought before them, and it is no fault of theirs if others seek to turn their decisions to political purposes. One section of our country believes slavery is right, and ought to be extended, while the other believes it is wrong, and ought not to be extended. This is the only substantial dispute. The fugitive slave clause of the Constitution, and the law for the suppression of the foreign slave trade, are each as well enforced, perhaps, as any law can ever be in a community where the moral sense of the people imperfectly supports the law itself. The great body of the people abide by the dry legal obligation in both cases, and a few break over in each. This, I think, cannot be perfectly cured; and it would be worse in both cases after the separation of the sections than before. The foreign slave trade, now imperfectly suppressed, would be ultimately revived without restriction in one section; while fugitive slaves, now only partially surrendered, would not be surrendered at all, by the other.

Physically speaking, we cannot separate. We cannot remove our respective sections from each other, nor build an impassable wall between them. A husband and wife may be divorced, and go out of the presence and beyond the reach of each other; but the different parts of our country cannot do this. They cannot but remain face to face; and intercourse, either amicable or hostile, must continue between them. Is it possible, then, to make that intercourse more advantageous or more satisfactory after separation than before? Can aliens make treaties easier than friends can make laws? Can treaties be more faithfully enforced between aliens than laws can among friends? Suppose you go to war, you cannot fight always; and when, after much loss on both sides, and no gain on either, you cease fighting, the identical old questions, as to terms of intercourse, are again upon you.

This country, with its institutions, belongs to the people who inhabit it. Whenever they shall grow weary of the existing Government they can exercise their constitutional right of amending it, or their revolutionary right to dismember or overthrow it. I cannot be ignorant of the fact that many worthy and patriotic citizens are desirous of having the National Constitution amended. While I make no recommendation of amendments, I fully recognize the rightful authority of the people over the whole subject, to be exercised in either of the modes prescribed in the instrument itself; and I should, under existing circumstances, favor rather than oppose a fair opportunity being afforded the people to act upon it. I will venture to add that to me the convention mode seems preferable, in that it allows amendments to originate with the people themselves, instead of only permitting them to take or reject propositions originated by others, not especially chosen for the purpose, and which might not be precisely such as they would wish to either accept or refuse. I understand a proposed amendment to the Constitution—which amendment, however, I have not seen—has passed Congress, to the effect that the Federal Government shall never interfere with the domestic institutions of the States, including that of persons held to service. To avoid misconstruction of what I have said, I depart from my purpose not to speak of particular amendments so far as to say that, holding such a provision now to be implied constitutional law, I have no objection to its being made express and irrevocable.

The Chief Magistrate derives all his authority from the people, and they have conferred none upon him to fix terms for the separation of the States. The people themselves can do this also if they choose; but the Executive, as such, has nothing to do with it. His duty is to administer the present Government, as it came to his hands, and to transmit it, unimpaired by him, to his successor.

Why should there not be a patient confidence in the ultimate justice of the people? Is there any better or equal hope in the world? In our present differences is either party without faith of being in the right? If the Almighty Ruler of Nations, with his eternal truth and justice, be on your side of the North, or on yours of the South, that truth and that justice will surely prevail, by the judgment of this great tribunal of the American people.

By the frame of the Government under which we live, this same people have wisely given their public servants but little power for mischief; and have, with equal wisdom, provided for the return of that little to their own hands at very short intervals. While the people retain their virtue and vigilance, no Administration, by any extreme of wickedness or folly, can very seriously injure the Government in the short space of four years.

My countrymen, one and all, think calmly and well upon this whole subject. Nothing valuable can be lost by taking time. If there be an object to hurry any of you, in hot haste, to a step which you would never take deliberately, that object will be frustrated by taking time; but no good object can be frustrated by it. Such of you as are now dissatisfied, still have the old Constitution unimpaired, and, on the sensitive point, the laws of your own framing under it; while the new Administration will have no immediate power, if it would, to change either. If it were admitted that you who are dissatisfied hold the right side in the dispute, there still is no single good reason for precipitate action. Intelligence, patriotism, Christianity, and a firm reliance on Him who has never yet forsaken this favored land, are still competent to adjust, in the best way, all our present difficulties.

In your hands, my dissatisfied fellow-countrymen, and not in mine, is the momentous issue of civil war. The Government will not assail you. You can have no conflict without being yourselves the aggressors. You have no oath registered in Heaven to destroy the Government, while I shall have the most solemn one to "preserve, protect, and defend it."

I am loth to close. We are not enemies, but friends. We must not be enemies. Though passion may have strained, it must not break our bonds of affection. The mystic chords of memory, stretching from every battle-field and patriot grave to every living heart and hearth-stone, all over this broad land, will yet swell the chorus of the Union, when again touched, as surely they will be, by the better angels of our nature.

CHILDREN TEETHING. MRS. WINSLOW, An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of mothers her Soothing Syrup, FOR CHILDREN TEETHING, which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and Relief and Health to your Infants. It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve Griping in the Bowels and Wind Colic, and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the BEST AND SUREST REMEDY IN THE WORLD in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHEA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—DO NOT LET YOUR PREJUDICES, NOR THE PREJUDICES OF OTHERS, stand between you and your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE—to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper. Sold by Druggists throughout the world. Principal Office 13 Cedar street, N. Y. PRICE ONLY 25 CENTS PER BOTTLE. mar21 dwodly&w1y

THE FAMINE IN KANSAS.

WM. C. BRYANT, Chairman. J. E. WILLIAMS, Treasurer.

Chas. H. Marshall, Seth B. Hunt, R. H. McCurdy, Moses Ketchum, G. G. Benson, Chas. W. Elliott, Daniel Lord, Daniel Drew, J. S. Wadsworth.

It has become our imperative duty to urge upon the public attention the fact that over [illegible],000 of our fellow-citizens in Kansas are now in imminent danger of starving. We have the evidence from all sources—from Gen. Pomeroy, Chairman of the Territorial Relief Committee, from the columns of nearly every newspaper there, of all shades of politics—from our own reliable agent who has just returned. There was no doubt of the misery, terrible, wide-spread, destructive.

We have evidence that whole families have already died of starvation; and that thousands more must lie down discouraged, and die of want and disease consequent upon it, unless prompt and thorough relief is at once supplied. Congress is now attempting to sustain the starving Indians, but our unsuccessful countrymen, men, women, and children can neither get away from the desolation, nor borrow, nor beg. Their only dependence is upon us who have never known hunger.

They must be sustained. Will you help us to help them?

To assure you that whatever you do will reach them, we state that in every destitute township is a Relief Committee—these are all represented by the Territorial Committee as follows:

TERRITORIAL COMMITTEE.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

S. C. Pomeroy, Chairman; A. L. McDowell, Rev. C. Reynolds, Rev. L. Bodwell, F. P. Baker.

S. C. Pomeroy, Corresponding Secretary.

G. H. Fairchild, Treasurer.

Gen. Pomeroy is Chairman, and at Atchison devotes his whole time and energy, with assistants, to the receipt and distribution of all contributions of food and clothing, all of which are delivered upon requisitions of Town Committees, and are distributed through them. This organization is prompt, thorough, and effective, and we advise the sending of supplies through it. Money and clothing are needed from us; food can be got in the West.

The names of our Committee appear at the head of this appeal, and we hope will be sufficient to induce cooperation. Our Treasurer is John E. Williams, President of the Metropolitan Bank, New York City. All money sent to him will be applied to the payment of Gen. Pomeroy's drafts, on account of freights and sacks. We appeal to you all, by every dictate of humanity, of honor, and of public good, to unite with us in alleviating this great calamity. There is no time to be lost.

First. We ask individuals everywhere to contribute at once, and to urge it upon their friends and neighbors.

Second. We appeal to all churches and organized bodies to act promptly, generously, and efficiently.

Third. We urge upon every Governor of every State immediately to bring this matter to the attention of their Legislatures and people. Our last statistics show that nearly $200,000 is needed within the coming fortnight, to supply this people with seed for spring planting. It can only be furnished by State action. Every consideration of interest also demands that this new State should be enabled to become self-sustaining, productive, and eventually rich—thus to fulfill her destiny, and to help others, as we are now helping her.

We ask, therefore, every Legislature to do as they would have others do to them in like distress, and at once to grant ample supplies.

All money sent to our Treasurer JOHN E. WILLIAMS, Metropolitan Bank, New York City, will be gratefully acknowledged and effectively used.

All clothing should be sent to "GEN. POMEROY, Atchison, Kansas" and freight should be prepaid.

NEW CONFECTIONERY AND RESTAURANT. MONS. J. PARGNY begs leave to announce to his friends and the public generally that his arrangements are at length completed, and the various departments of his business are fully organized. The Ladies' Restaurant is a new feature in this city, and Mons. Pargny pledges himself that it shall be conducted in the most orderly and unexceptionable manner. The entrance is through the Confectionery, and the utmost care will be taken that the persons admitted shall be only such as the most fastidious cannot object to. All the delicacies of the season, together with sherbets, ices, &c., are always on hand, winter and summer. The Confectionery is supplied with everything that can tempt the eye or please the taste. Many of the articles have never before been offered for sale in this city. The Gentlemen's Restaurant is ample and orderly. No Bar is kept, but the purest and finest of liquors are furnished to the guests at the tables. Every article and every dish which is within reach of the resources of the cook can be had, from a slice of American Ham to a patate foie gras. Mons. Pargny flatters himself that his cuisine is equal to any in America. Thankful for past favors, he hopes by attention and politeness to merit a continuance of the same. Parties, private and public Dinners, Suppers, &c., will be supplied in the best manner, and on reasonable terms, either at the Restaurant or elsewhere. f[illegible]

LOUISVILLE Private Medical Dispensary Conducted on the European Plan, For the Cure of all Private Diseases.

Those afflicted with any disease of a private nature, who would escape the imposition of ignorant quacks, should not fail to read "Dr. GATES'S PRIVATE MEDICAL TREATISE ON SEXUAL DISEASES," a new and revised edition of one hundred pages, handsomely illustrated with plates and engravings representing the genital organs of both sexes in a state of health and disease. Treating on all private diseases incident to both sexes, such as general nervous and sexual debility, solitary habits, physical weakness, &c. Price by mail TEN CENTS.

DR. GATES has for many years devoted his whole time and attention to the treatment of diseases of a private nature in all their various and complicated forms. His success in those long standing and difficult cases, which were formerly considered incurable, is sufficient to commend him to the afflicted as worthy of the extensive practice which he has heretofore received. And he pledges to parties of every condition to prove to render himself proficient in the profession of his adoption.

Those who believe they have contracted disease should make immediate application, as, by his recent discoveries, he is enabled to cut short all cases in a few days. Young, Middle-aged, and Old Men, who, by indulging in solitary habits or excessive indulgence of their passions, have produced SEMINAL WEAKNESS or an ability in advance of their years, may be restored to their former health and vigor by making immediate application.

TO THE LADIES.—Dr. Gates is agent for M. LA CROIX'S FRENCH PREVENTIVE POWDERS. By their use, those who, from any cause, wish to limit the number of their offspring, can do so without danger to health or constitution. Price by mail, $1 and two postage stamps.

Also, for MADAME CAPRAU'S FEMALE MONTHLY PILLS—a safe and effectual remedy for Irregularities, Obstructions, &c. Price by mail, $1 and one postage stamp.

CAUTION.—These pills should not be taken during pregnancy, as they are sure to produce miscarriage.

To persons at a distance who wish to be cured at home we will, on receipt of a brief statement of their case, send a list of questions to be answered, and on the return of the answers we will forward medicines particularly adapted to the case, free from observation, to any part of the country with full directions for use.

Consultations may be had from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. (on Sunday from 9 to 11 A. M.) at his office, northeast corner of Third and Market streets, up stairs, private entrance on Third street, Louisville, Ky.

☞ The above business will hereafter be conducted under the name and style of DR. H. G. MILLER & CO., to whom all orders and letters should be addressed. Dr. GATES can, as heretofore, be consulted personally, during business hours, on all diseases on which his book treats.

☞ Secrecy inviolable. Don't forget the name and place. All letters directed to DR. H. G. MILLER & CO. [illegible] Louisville, Ky.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC. I AM again prepared to fill orders as heretofore. All orders left at the office of the [illegible] Ardell, on Third, between Green and Jefferson streets, will be promptly attended to. [illegible] H. G. VAN SEGGERN.

ROBERT MURRELL. C. G. BOWLES. MURRELL & BOWLES, Commission Merchants, NO. 74 CAMP STREET, New Orleans.

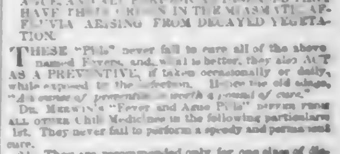
Scrofula, or King's Evil, is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation; indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in

AYER'S Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every where prevailing and fatal malady. [illegible] Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., and sold by R. A. R[illegible] & CO., Wholesale Agents, Louisville.

THE GREAT SOUTHERN & WESTERN REMEDY.



Dr. MERWIN'S FEVER & AGUE PILLS. FOR THE PERMANENT CURE OF FEVER AND AGUE, CHILLS, FEVER, CONGESTIVE CHILLS, REMITTENT FEVER, BILIOUS FEVER, DUMB AGUE, AND ALL PERIODICAL DISEASES THAT HAVE THEIR ORIGIN IN MIASMATIC AFFLUVIA ARISING FROM DECAYED VEGETATION.

THESE "Pills" never fail to cure all of the above named Fevers, and, what is better, they also ACT AS A PREVENTIVE, if taken occasionally or daily, while exposed to the infection. [illegible] Dr. MERWIN'S "Fever and Ague Pills" possess many advantages over all other Chill Medicines in the following particulars: 1st. They never fail to perform a speedy and permanent cure. 2d. They are recommended only for one class of diseases. 3d. They are agreeable and convenient to take. 4th. They contain no poisonous minerals, being purely vegetable. 5th. They do not impair the organic functions of the stomach or any part of the system. 6th. They require no other medicine to prepare the system for their reception or afterwards to allay irritation. 7th. They are not a Northern "catch-penny humbug," but are prepared by a gentleman who was born, raised, and educated under the benign influences of Southern institutions.

☞ REMEMBER when you purchase these Pills that you are not contributing means for "Yankee Emigrant Aid Societies" or Sharp's rifles and bowie knives for "Bleeding Kansas," as you many times have done in buying Northern articles.

We wish all to distinctly understand that this is a SOUTHERN MEDICINE, prepared from the simple plants that grow in our woodlands, on our river-banks, bayous, and elsewhere.

☞ The Eastern telegraph line were interrupted last night, consequently we are without our usual despatches.

☞ Our friend J. B. Barrick, of Glasgow, authorizes the announciation of himself as a Union candidate for the office of State Treasurer. We are told that he does so at a sacrifice of his own personal inclinations as well as personal interests and only in deference to the wishes of friends.

Mr. Barrick is a man of genius and worth, eminently fitted for the office in question or almost any other the people could confer upon him. It is highly desirable, however, that there shall be a thorough union of the whole Union party in the election, and we understand that the two Union Central Committees of the State, will endeavor to make effective arrangements for harmonious action.

CITY BUSINESS.—The two boards of the General Council were in session last evening.

The ordinance creating the office of Street Commissioner was repealed by the Common Council.

An ordinance creating the office of City Engineer was passed by the Board of Aldermen and appropriately referred in the Council.

An ordinance requiring the drivers of furniture cars and wood wagons to place their vehicles on different streets, allowing not more than two in the same locality, passed both boards.

The committee appointed to examine into the conduct of the Mayor and Chief of Police in discharging policemen without formal trial, reported that sufficient cause had existed in each case to warrant a discharge.

The appropriation ordinance for the fiscal year ending March 9, 1861, was passed. The expenditures during the year have exceeded the amount by about $4,000. Within the past year old liabilities to the amount of $21,080 have been paid, and warrants for the year 1860 to the amount of $24,000.

The Council then adjourned to meet on Tuesday evening next.

UNION MEETING IN THE SEVENTH WARD.—At a meeting of the friends of the Union in the Seventh Ward, held at the Relief Engine-house last evening, Mr. G. W. Anderson was called to the chair, and B. H. Hain, Esq., appointed secretary. At a previous meeting, Mr. H. A. Griswold was nominated as a candidate to represent the Ward in the Common Council, but Mr. G. having declined, Mr. Joshua R. Brown was nominated to fill the vacancy upon the ticket, in addition to Mr. T. C. Pomeroy, the present incumbent. The following gentlemen were appointed to represent the Ward in the contemplated City Convention: B. H. Hain, Geo. Mulliken, J. N. Kellogg, J. M. Boggs, J. B. Reed, H. W. Brice, J. L. Brown, and Barrett Mulliken.

THE LAST VIEW OF IRELAND.—Benefit of Miss Kate.—The admirers of those beautiful views will regret to learn that they will be exhibited for the last time at Mozart Hall in this city this evening. The entertainment has been very appropriately set apart for the benefit of Miss Kate MacEvoy, the charming vocalist, who has during the stay of the party in this city, contributed so largely to our enjoyment. She will sing the Star Spangled Banner and introduce many novelties. Of course the strength of the dramatic and ballet corps will be tried on the occasion, Miss Marie presiding at the harp, and Miss Theresa Spalding and little "Barney" contributing to the evening's enjoyment. A grand matinee, the last of the series, will be given at 3 o'clock this afternoon, for the convenience of schools and family parties.

RE-ARRESTED.—It will be remembered that a man named H. H. McMannus and his paramour were arrested in this city a few days ago by Officers Moore, Seay, and Swinney as suspected felons, and that a large amount of silver ware and dress goods, supposed to have been stolen, was found in their possession. McMannus had been released on bail for his appearance, but was re-arrested again on Thursday on a charge of larceny. Officer Dye, of the Memphis police, appearing and identifying the silver and other goods as a portion of the property stolen from a business house in that city a short time ago. McMannus will await a requisition from Governor Harris, of Tennessee.

THEATRE.—The clerk of the weather is a most ungallant official, or he would not have opened the windows of heaven last night with such a storm, to measurably injure the benefit of Miss Jennie Hight. But despite his rain of terror, she had a good house, and beautifully did she look and play Esmeralda. We wish her better luck in the weather-way the next time. This evening Mrs. Elmore has a benefit. She is a pain - aking and talented lady, and a very attractive bill is offered, we bespeak for her a crowded house, as an evidence of professional appreciation from our citizens, to which she is every way entitled.

FIRST WARD.—The Union meeting in this Ward last night appointed the following gentlemen as delegates to the city convention: Jonathan Clark, James Moore, Wm. Porter, John M. Moore, Chas. Olmstead, Pink Varble, Nicholas Smith, John F. Gunkle, Oliver Lucas, Wm. White, Robert Snyder, Jas. W. Bryan, Wm. Davis, and T. C. Dozier.

W. F. Rutsel and Hugh Irvine, the Working-men's nominees for City Councilmen, were unanimously confirmed.

WORKING-MEN'S NOMINATIONS.—At a meeting of the Working-men of the Fourth Ward last evening, the following nominations were made: For Alderman, Thomas C. Shanks; for Councilmen, Dr. N. B. Marshall, E. A. Buckner; for School Trustee, Dr. R. C. Holland.

A meeting was also held in the Third Ward, at which the following nominations were made: For Councilmen, V. Overall and F. C. Wellman; for School Trustee, B. O. Davis.

A SWINDLER.—A man who gave his name as C. F. Manhoff, but whose real name is Julius Koulman, recently imposed himself upon a respectable gentleman in St. Louis, obtaining several hundred dollars' worth of goods from the gentleman and a promise of his sister's hand in marriage. He professed to have large business connections in this city, especially with Messrs. "Chambers & Stevens."

☞ The Rev. A. C. Osborne, who accompanied the remains of the late Corresponding Secretary of the Bible Revision Association to their final resting place in New York, returned yesterday, and will occupy his pulpit at the Jefferson-street Baptist Church to-morrow.

CONVICTED.—In the Court of Common Pleas at New Albany yesterday Robert Collins, for larceny, and Edward Howard, for counterfeiting, were sentenced to the penitentiary each for two years.

DISTRESSING ACCIDENT.—We learn from the Bardstown Gazette that Hezekiah Barnard, a gunsmith, of Chaplin, Nelson county, shot both his hands off on last Thursday. Mr. Barnard had his hands over the muzzle of the gun, and carelessly let his foot drop upon the hammer, which caused its discharge. His has a family who dependet upon his labors for their sustenance.

CREW POISONED.—The Evansville Journal learns from Mr. Archy Taylor, pilot of the Samuel Orr, who arrived at Evansville, the other morning, from the Wabash, that when at Palestine, where they saw the Jacob Musselman, the latter boat had four or five of her crew sick with what appeared to be the effects of poisoning.

RESIGNATIONS.—A great deal has been said about the resignations of Southern office-holders. A despatch from Washington says that there are in the departments office-holders from every pretended seceded State, not excepting South Carolina, and including in the number brothers of the seceding Senators.

☞ In the Senate on Wednesday when Mr. Mason, of Virginia, denounced the inaugural as a declaration of war, Mr. Douglas said he had "concluded it was a peace rather than a war message."

KILLED.—A negro man in the employment of John L. Howe, Esq., as a miller, at Bowling Green, was caught in the machinery on Friday last, which injured him so that he died.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.—S. S. Gale, Superintendent of the Grant Oil Works at Memphis, was caught in the machinery on Tuesday and crushed to death.

MURDERED FOR HIS MONEY.—An Arkansas planter named Clark Truly was found murdered near Bayou Macon recently, and $600 was missed from his person. The murderers are unknown.

☞ Norman B. Judd, of Illinois, has been appointed by the President Minister to Prussia, in place of Joseph A. Wright, removed.

☞ E. P. Barbour was admitted to practice as an attorney in the city court yesterday morning.

OUR TERRITORIES.—The organization of the Territories of Colorado, Nevada, and Dakota increases the number of United States Territories to seven, including the former ones of Washington, Nebraska, Utah, and New Mexico. Of these new organizations, the Tribune says that Colorado and Nevada contain the richest mines, and also includes parts of Kansas, Nebraska, and Eastern Utah. Its boundaries run as follows: Beginning at a point where the 103d degree of west longitude from Greenwich crosses the 37th parallel of north latitude, thence north along said 102d parallel to where it intersects the 41st degree of north latitude, thence west along said line to the 109th degree of west longitude, thence south along said line to the 37th degree of north latitude, thence east along the 37th degree of north latitude to the place of beginning. The Territory contains about 100,000 square miles, and at this time a population of some 25,000 persons. The Rocky Mountains divide the Territory into two parts, westward from them flowing a large number of rivers, tributary to the Colorado, and eastward others equally numerous and large, tributary to the Arkansas and South Fork Platte rivers. It includes the famous mining region, Pike's Peak, rich in gold and other metals, cut off by deserts from the more fertile Western States, but destined to be the home of advancing civilization, and to give up its treasures at the summons of enlightened toil.

Nevada is taken from Western Utah and California. Its boundaries are as follows: Beginning at the point of intersection of the 42d degree of north latitude with the 39th degree of longitude west from Washington; thence running south on the line of this 39th degree west longitude, until it intersects the northern boundary of the Territory of New Mexico; thence due west to the dividing ridge separating the waters of Carson Valley from those that flow into the Pacific; thence on this dividing ridge northwardly to the 41st degree north latitude; thence due north to the southern boundary line of the State of Oregon; thence due east to the place of beginning. That portion of the Territory within the present limits of the State of California is not to be included within Nevada, until the State of California shall assent to the same by an act irrevocable without the consent of the United States. The Territory includes the lovely Carson Valley, the memory of whose beauty lingers with the traveller in his journey through arid plains and over rugged mountains, and whose wondrous fertility, even under the rudest cultivation, shows what may be expected there when intelligent industry has free course. Great mineral wealth, especially of silver, in which it is richer than any other part of the world, and unlimited capacity for the raising of agricultural products, will combine at an early day to transform this region into a rich and populous State.

In general terms, Dakota lies between lat. 42° 30' and 49° north, and long. 96° 30' and 108° west. It is bounded on the north by British America, east by the States of Minnesota and Iowa, south and west by Nebraska. Its length from north to south is 450 miles, its average breadth is about 200 miles, and it has an area of 70,000 square miles. It was formerly a part of the territory of Minnesota, but was detached when that became a State. The Indians belonging to the Yankton, Sissiton, and Sioux tribes are numerous, and live chiefly by the chase. The territory includes open, grassy plains, high-rolling prairies, a great number of lakes and ponds, and very numerous valuable rivers. The climate of the south is mild; that of the north severe, though less so than might be expected from its high latitude. The land is well timbered, and the valleys are highly productive. Coal abounds in some parts, and other minerals add wealth to the region. The game is plentiful, and of great value for its furs.

THE CIRCULAR OF THE SECESSIONISTS.—The annexed circular has been sent to us. We have no time to comment upon it to-day, but we publish it immediately in order that the friends of the Union and the Constitution in Kentucky may have timely knowledge of what the enemies of the Union and the Constitution are doing to drag Kentucky down from her lofty height and bow her starry forehead in the dust. We tell you, friends, that you must meet this movement and all other disunion movements promptly and at all points, or you will be responsible through all time for the mad overthrow of the most glorious fabric of government the world has seen:

LOUISVILLE, KY., March 8, 1861.

DEAR SIR: We suggest to you the importance of at once making arrangements either privately or publicly, as you deem best, by which your county will be represented by several delegates, who will attend a Convention at Frankfort, which we propose to hold on the 20th inst.

By this means the Legislature can be instructed in regard to the sentiment of the entire State, and doubtless upon such information will proceed to take such action as the interests and honor of the State demand.

We would also advise that signatures should be got to a petition for a Convention, and that they should either be sent here and thus be forwarded in a mass, or be presented to the Legislature by our members, when they meet.

☞ The Provisional Postal Bill does not suit the Augusta (Geo.) Chronicle. It fixes the minimum letter postage at five cents and ten cents over five hundred miles, besides increasing the rates on drop-letters, &c. The Chronicle says the bill was framed and passed in a sort of star chamber fashion that it didn't like, but it can do nothing but grumble and hope for better luck in the future.

☞ The Interest Bill of the Indiana House—that doing away with penalties for usury but leaving the legal rate of interest at 6 per cent—has passed the Senate. It only lacks the Governor's approval to become a law.

THE SOUTHERN TARIFF.—The Congress of the Confederate States having adopted the United States tariff of 1857, it becomes a matter of interest to merchants and others having business relations with the States of the South to know what duties their goods, wares, and merchandize will have to pay when next across the line. We find the following classification in one of our exchanges, which embraces nearly all of interest to our merchants:

Manufactures of cedar and wood, grandilla, ebony, mahogany, rose wood, and satin wood, per cent.	24
Manufactures of bark of the cork tree	24
Manufactures of bone, shell, horn, pearl, or ivory	24

LOUISVILLE JOURNAL.

HOMICIDE.—McQueen Blue killed Dr. Cousins, near Houston, Fla., on the 18th ult. Dr. Cousins had settled on some public land, and occupied it some time. Blue entered the land, and notified the Doctor to leave immediately. The Doctor attempted to move some rails and fencing which he had placed on the land, to another place. Blue warned him to desist, or he would kill him. The Doctor kept on removing the fence, and Blue shot, killing him instantly.

SUICIDE OF AN AUTHOR.—The Coroner held an inquest in New York on Tuesday, in the case of Mr. Ferdinand Hoffmann, a native of Germany, 29 years of age, who committed suicide by inhaling chloroform. The Post says:

It appeared in evidence that deceased, who was a man of superior attainments, and had taken in his native country the degree of Doctor of Jurisprudence, arrived in this city about two years ago, where he published several works, which received favorable notices from the press. He then became a correspondent to some of the German papers in this city and Europe, and in this manner was enabled to secure a comfortable income. Lately, however, his finances had become very low, and he was compelled to leave the Hotel du Nord, where he had been boarding, and take apartments in Mercer street. Here he was unable to pay his rent, and he became so despondent in consequence that he finally committed suicide. He returned to his apartments about two o'clock on Saturday morning, and nothing more was seen of him until Monday afternoon, when his landlord, observing that an offensive odor issued from deceased's room, and finding the door locked, broke it open and discovered deceased lying in bed, with a small bottle of chloroform between his lips. AN EDITOR CHALLENGED.—... THE THIRD TIME DURING THE SEASON.—W. W. Holden, the editor of the Raleigh (N. C.) Standard, and a Union candidate for the State Convention in Wake County, received the third challenge "for the present season," a day or two ago. The Raleigh Banner thus refers to it:

"A communication appeared in a newspaper in this city, purporting to be an account of the discussion between Mr. Holden and A. M. Lewis, Esq., at Rolesville, a few days ago. The communication was signed "J ...," and Mr. Holden, in his paper of Tuesday morning, denounced it as "a tissue of ... and misrepresentations from first to last," which he denounced it in the Town Hall on Monday. A writer in the American Agriculturist gives the following seasonable advice:

Barns and Stables.—Keep out the wind and storms, but provide sufficient ventilation to carry off all effluvia. The odors arising from excretions, if confined, make the atmosphere unwholesome for animals, and impart a taint to their food.

Cows.—Keep breeding cows in wide, roomy stalls, ... from other animals, as their time of calving approaches.

Cellars.—Sort over potatoes, roots, apples, etc., and remove all decaying matter. If more apples were stored than are needed for family use, market them, or feed to stock. Examine pork and beef barrels; some may need new brine.

Cloverseed.—Provide a supply of this for sowing upon the winter grain fields, as spring approaches. A lot of clover for pasture is good, and the best and cheapest manure is a rank growth of clover plowed in.

Drains in the yards, by the roadsides, and in the fields should be kept free from obstruction, as far as possible, improve every thaw to attend to this. It is the expansion of water in the soil, and not of the soil itself, that rends the roots of plants, and winter kills them.

Fencing.—Add to the stock of materials if needed, and commence repairs as early as may be.

Fuel.—Have a year's supply ready for the stove. Spring will bring work enough without this additional labor. Besides, dry fuel is best, and the cheapest. It always takes the best of a portion of green wood to dry out the moisture from the rest.

Grain.—Thresh any remaining, before more loss is suffered from rats and mice. Secure abundant supplies of good seed for spring use.

Grain Fields.—Keep all stock from feeding or trampling them.

Hired Men.—Engage good trustworthy hands for the coming season. One or two dollars per month is a small matter compared with the loss and vexation caused by ignorant or careless help.

Hogs.—Warm, cooked food is economical. Keep them in good appetite by occasional changes of diet. Give potatoes, meal, a little chopped hay steamed, refuse vegetables, etc., with grain and meal. Keep the pens clean and well littered with leaves or straw.

Ice House.—Fill, if not completed. Secure proper drainage and ventilation.

Manure.—Make and save all possible. Cart out and deposit in heaps in the field in suitable weather. Fine compost may be advantageously applied to meadows now, thus securing an early and rapid growth in spring; the surface will also be less cut by drawing it while the ground is frozen.

Poultry.—Guard against vermin by occasional fumigation of nesting places and whitewashing the roosts. Remove the droppings to the manure heap, or mix with plaster, and reserve them for the garden or other choice plots.

Seed.—Make ample provision for seed corn, spring wheat, oats, and whatever else will be needed. It is better done now than in the hurry of spring.

Sheep.—Provide ample shelter separate from other stock. Keep them in good condition with roots or grain added to hay. Breeding ewes will bear stronger lambs and be less exhausted thereby, if properly treated through the winter.

INDIA RUBBER WATER PROOF VARNISH.—A writer in the Scientific American says:

I have used a solution of India rubber and turpentine for about twenty years as a waterproof varnish for my boots and shoes. I make the application before blacking is put on, or else remove the blacking by water. When the leather is moist I take the solution of India rubber and apply it with a rag, taking care to rub it in; then I put the boot in a moderately warm place until the whole is absorbed. The process is repeated twice, or until the pores of the leather are filled, when the surplus is wiped off. In a few days afterwards blacking may be put on, and the leather will polish well. By this method of treating my boots, I make them not only water tight, but also much more durable, and the leather is always kept soft and pliable. I treat every new pair of boots in the manner described, and effect a considerable annual saving thereby.

A WORD TO THE WORKING CLASSES.

BY GEORGE W. BUNGAY.

A gentleman is a man who is gentle. Titles—graceful accomplishments—superior culture—princely wealth—great talents—genius—do not constitute a man with all the attributes needed to make him a gentleman. He may be awkward—angular, homely, or poor—and yet belong to the uncrowned aristocracy. His face may be bronzed at the forge or bleached in the mill—his hand huge and hard—his patched vest, like Joseph's coat, of many colors—and he may still be a true gentleman. The dandy is a dry goods sign, and not a gentleman, for he depends upon his dress, and not upon his honor and virtue, for his passport to the best circles of society. "The man who has no money is poor—he who has nothing but money is poorer than he," and is not a gentleman. Some of the most distinguished men in the world of letters—in the world of art—have been unamiable—gross—vulgar—ungentle, consequently not gentlemen.

"You are a plebeian," said a patrician to Cicero. "I am a plebeian," said the eloquent Roman; "the nobility of my family begins with me; that of yours will end with you." I hold no man deserves to be crowned with honor whose life is a failure; and he who lives only to eat and drink and accumulate money is a failure. The world is no better for his living in it. He never wiped a tear from a sad face—never kindled a fire upon a frozen hearth. I repeat with emphasis, he is a failure. There is no flesh in his heart; he worships no God but gold. I can here at the North there are persons who deem it discreditable and ungentlemanly to labor; hence vast multitudes of young men shirk the yoke of toil, and rush headlong into professions and positions for which they are totally disqualified.

There is true dignity in labor, and no true dignity without it. He who looks down scornfully on labor is like Hermes, who had a mouth and no hands, and yet made faces at those who fed him—mocking the fingers that brought bread to his lips.

He who writes a book, or builds a house, or tills a farm, or follows any useful employment, lives to some purpose, and contributes something to the fund of human happiness. Look at that farmer; he has a share in the bank, but his bank is a bank of loam, his share is a ploughshare—and the more his share breaks his bank, the greater will be his dividends. He need not send his notes to New York to be redeemed, for Nature has endorsed them with her signature of flowers.

> Toil well in the ... where woodlands lave,
> And the stars of heaven, and stripes.

Garibaldi, the greatest hero of the age, is a working man. Henry Clay was "the mill boy of the slashes." Daniel Webster knit his iron frame into strength by working on his father's farm when young. The men who have brawn power enough in their veins to work the brains—in their shoulders, are men who labor.—Independent.

THE TRUE AND GENUINE

UNSURPASSED IN QUALITY AND EFFECTS

BAKER & CO.'S MEDICINAL TRANSPARENT COD LIVER OIL.

BEING THE SWEETEST AND BEST PREPARED

Hence, if fairly tried will soon restore the tone of the digestive organs, invigorate the blood, give general robustness to the frame, and add energy to the mind and nervous system. Its value has been remarkably evidenced by its wonderful restorative powers, where ordinary tonics had been vainly exhibited. It affords nourishment to the body when no other can be borne, and furnishes the frame with fat in a truly remarkable manner.

For CONSUMPTION and BRONCHITIS, SCROFULA in all its forms, WEAKNESS, WASTING, and every form of DEBILITY, its curative properties are unrivalled.

It may be taken without disrelish by the most delicate patient, and retained without effort in the most sensitive stomach. Its superiority in this and other important characteristics of genuineness has guaranteed for it the commendation of the most eminent Physicians throughout the State; the written testimony of the faculty of the best medical schools; the Professors of the UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA, JEFFERSON COLLEGE OF PHILADELPHIA, PHILADELPHIA COLLEGE OF MEDICINE, and others.

Invalids should be careful to purchase oil of undoubted reputation if they desire the most active and immediate advantages of the remedy. That which we prepare has had evidence of superiority over other brands. Manufactured only by

THE PENNSYLVANIA CENTRAL RAILROAD.

250 Miles—Double Track.

The Capacity of this Road is now equal to any in the Country.

THREE THROUGH

Passenger Trains

BETWEEN PITTSBURG AND PHILADELPHIA.

CONNECTING direct in the Union Depot, at Pittsburg, with through trains from all Western cities for Philadelphia, New York, Boston, Baltimore and Washington City, thus furnishing facilities for the transportation of passengers unsurpassed for speed and comfort by any other route.

Express and Fast Lines run through to Philadelphia without change of cars or conductors.

Smoking cars are attached to each train; Woodruff's Sleeping Cars to Express and Fast Trains. The EXPRESS RUNS DAILY, Mail and Fast Line Sundays excepted. Three Daily Trains connect direct for New York. Express and Fast Line connect for Baltimore and Washington.

All Through Passenger Trains provided with Loughridge's Patent Brake—speed under perfect control of the Engineer, thus adding much to the safety of travelers.

Six Daily Trains between Philadelphia and New York. Two Daily Trains between New York and Boston. Through Tickets (all rail) are good on either of the above Trains.

BOAT TICKETS to Boston are good via Norwich, Fall River, or Stonington Lines. Boston passengers transferred free of charge through New York.

TICKETS EASTWARD may be obtained at any of the important Railroad offices in the West; also on board any of the regular Line of Steamers on the Mississippi and Ohio Rivers; and at the offices of the Company in Boston, New York, Baltimore, or Philadelphia.

Fare always as low and time as quick as by any other Route.

ASK FOR TICKETS BY PITTSBURG.

The completion of the Western connections of the Pennsylvania Railroad make this the Direct Line Between the East and the GREAT WEST.

The connecting of tracks by the Railroad Bridge at Pittsburg, avoiding all drayage and ferriage of freight, together with the saving of time, are advantages readily appreciated by Shippers of Freight and the Traveling Public.

For Freight Contracts or Shipping Directions apply to or address either of the following Agents of the Company:

D. A. STEWART, Pittsburgh; H. S. Pierce & Co., Zanesville, O.; J. J. Johnston, Ripley, O.; R. McNeely, Maysville, Ky.; Ormsby & Cropper, Portsmouth, Ohio; Paddock & Co., Jeffersonville, Ind.; H. W. F. Sass, Shaler & Glass, St. Louis, Mo.; John H. Harris, Nashville, Tenn.; Harris & Hunt, Memphis, Tenn.; Clark & Co., Chicago, Ill.; W. H. H. Koontz, Alton, Ill.; or to Freight Agents of Railroads at different points in the West.

The Greatest Facilities offered for the Protection and Speedy Transportation of LIVE STOCK.

FREIGHTS.

By this route freights of all descriptions can be forwarded to and from Philadelphia, New York, Boston, or Baltimore, to and from any point on the Railroads of Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa, or Missouri by railroad direct.

The Pennsylvania Railroad also connects at Pittsburg with steamers, by which goods can be forwarded to any Port on the Ohio, Muskingum, Kentucky, Tennessee, Cumberland, Illinois, Mississippi, Wisconsin, Missouri, Kansas, Arkansas, and Red rivers; and at Cleveland, Sandusky, and Chicago with steamers to all ports on the Northwestern Lakes.

Merchants and Shippers entrusting the transportation of their freight to this Company can rely with confidence on its speedy transit.

THE RATES OF FREIGHT to and from any point in the West by the Pennsylvania Railroad, are at all times as favorable as are charged by any other Railroad Companies.
